INAUGURAL CANSPEP MEETING IN CAMBRIDGE, ONTARIO

Cambridge, Ontario (Immediate Release) - The Canadian Society of Professional Event Planners (CanSPEP), the only association in Canada's event industry offering an exclusive membership to independent event planner entrepreneurs, is proud to announce our inaugural meeting in Cambridge, Ontario on June 17 2009 at The Cambridge Hotel and Conference Centre.

NIP, TUCK AND SAVE WITH TECHNOLOGY, presented by Keith Atwood and Nick Eveleigh from Warp Speed Computers, will guide attendees through the maze of current technology to help them understand what's right for them, their business and their clients. The session will feature information web-based file sharing, web/video/voice conferencing, free apps and productivity software, the iPhone, the Blackberry, VOIP and Skype and more!

Ask CanSPEP Members Bettyanne Sherrer CMP and Karen Elliot CMP of ProPlan about Warp Speed Computers and here's what they have to say:

"Warp Speed Computers is fast, efficient, problem solving and troubleshooting expertise that event planners need. The technicians at Warp Speed understand the Conference/Event Planning Industry and our unique needs for small office, home-based and mobile operations. Should we experience technical difficulties, Warp Speed's quick response to help solve the problem has made us feel like a Fortune 500 company and that they understand that when systems are down, money is lost! Warp Speed is part of the ProPlan Team!"

About CanSPEP

The Canadian Society of Professional Event Planners (CanSPEP) is a professional network of over 100 entrepreneurs across Canada in the meeting, conference and event management business. Formed in 1996, the association provides a forum in which members meet to exchange ideas, develop skills through educational programs, and share partnership opportunities that foster business growth.

Our primary goal is to promote professionalism and create awareness of the many skills that independent meeting planners offer. Our membership represents a diverse group of experienced businesses that cater to clients in the corporate, association, government and not-for-profit sectors, as well as the special events market.

While membership is open to meeting planners only, the association offers industry suppliers opportunities to showcase their products and services to our members through our Partner Programs.

CanSPEP continues to grow, with representation in the Calgary, Edmonton, Montreal, Ottawa, South Western Ontario, Greater Toronto, and Vancouver areas.

CanSPEP Mission

To promote, support and provide education to independent meeting and event planners and create public awareness around the profession of event planners.
